ADVENTISTS ADVOCATE
MISSIONARY INSTITUTE

General Conference Would Give Active Work to Each of the 115,000 Members of Church.

The greatest movement that has ever been planned in the history of the denomination, according to the statement of several of the leading clergymen present, was that of planning a series of home missionary institutes at the general conference, opened on Seventh Day Adventists, now being held at Takoma Park.

This movement will have for its ultimate outcome the making of every one of the 115,000 members in the denomination a home missionary.

A systematic program of how these institutes should be conducted in order to enlist every member into service was laid before the council by Miss Edith M. Graham, who has been brought from Australia to lead this work. Miss Graham is the secretary of the home missionary department of the general conference, and Miss L. M. Gregg and Miss Sandberg were also brought to Takoma Park from Australia to assist her.

Each of the several thousand churches in the world is to have an active missionary committee, whose duty it will be by device ways and means of getting every member of the church to do some regular, systematic missionary work.

POWHATAN SALE CONFIRMED.

Local Hotel's Purchase by Alexander McNeil Concluded.

Justice Stafford yesterday confirmed the bid of $250,000 made by Alexander McNeil for the Powhatan Hotel and overruled the exceptions proposed by the Lewis Hotel Company through Clifford M. Lewis, who noted an appeal in behalf of the company.

At the end of the thirty days the receiver will convey the property to Mr. McNeil or to such persons as he shall designate. The purchase money is to be paid in cash.

GRAND JURY INDICTS TWELVE

Grand Larceny and Assault Cases to Be Tried in Court.

The grand jury yesterday returned following indictments:

Grand larceny, John W. MacClements, William C. Bridges, Marshall Lyles, and Henry Coleman; assault with a dangerous weapon, Samuel Butler, and John Jackson; housebreaking, Nettie Driver, John Hamilton, John Jones, and Charles E. Green; robbery, Maudie Thorpe; housebreaking and grand larceny, David P. Corbett.

CHILD SENT TO ST. ANNE'S.

Preliminary Step Taken by Court in Beauvais Divorce Case.

Justice Stafford yesterday signed an order placing the child of Emilio and Adele Beauvais in the custody of St. Ann's Infant Asylum, permitting the mother to visit it.

Mrs. Beauvais recently filed suit for maintenance against her husband, alleging that her own sister had been the cause of her husband's estrangement. In reply Beauvais denied the charge and accused his wife with being addicted to the use of intoxicating drinks and not fit to have custody of their child.

LAMAR PLEA DISMISSED.

Justice Claiborne Holds Against "Wall Street Wolf's" Contentions.

Chief Justice Claiborne yesterday dismissed the habeas corpus proceeding brought by David Lamar, the so-called "Wolf of Wall Street," to prevent his return to New York for trial on the ground that a representative in Congress is an officer of the United States within the purview of the section of the criminal code under which Lamar was indicted in New York.

The court will sign the order this morning, when Lamar will note an appeal to the District Court of Appeals and will give bond in the sum of $2,000 to prevent the action of the Appellate Court.

GROGAN'S

Before you buy Furniture and Carpets for your home just stop and think of the furnishings in different homes you have seen.

There are those where everything is pleasing to the eye. A general color scheme is carried out in different rooms, patterns in the pieces of furniture correspond, drapery effects harmonize with both.

Then there are the homes where the furnishings were picked up at random in an attempt to secure bargains. It is unnecessary to remind you of what these homes resembled.

Come here and carry out your ideas. Get just what you want to make your home most attractive and comfortable. There's endless variety from which to choose; there's absolute reliability in the qualities; there's certainty that prices are right, because we mark them in figures you can read.

Your purchases may be charged on open account, without notes or interest. Payments will be divided to make the terms just as easy as you ask.
